LAYERS AGAIN HARD. HIT

FIRST AND SECOND CHOICES TAKE LION'S SHARE OF PURSES AT CHARLESTON.

Ivabel, the Exception, Beats T. M. Green in Feature Race of Interesting Card-Racing Conditions Again Ideal.

Charleston, S. C., March 19.—Conditions at Palmetto Park today were again ideal for racing and some really enjoyable sport was furnished to the many visitors. The attendance was not as large as yesterday's, but enthusiasm was not lacking. Speculation in the ring continued lively, and the layers were again a sorry lot at the close of the racing for most of the purses were again taken by first or second choices, entailing big losses to the layers. The finishes were exciting in most instances, with action during the earlier running spirited. The track was at its best. The only race in which the talent went far astray was the fourth, the afternoon's feature, in which some fleet sprinters met at six furlongs. Opinion was divided between T. M. Green and Prince Ahmed as the likeliest, with the other starters scantily considered. The winner turned up in Ivabel, with T. M. Green in second place and Prince Ahmed third. The winner turned up in Ivabel, with T. M. Green in second place and Prince Ahmed third. The winner's showing today represented a vast improvement over some of her recent essays.

The mile and an eighth race, engaging some of the better class of platers, went to John Furlong, which scored in decisive fashion, with G. M. Miller and Console taking the minor portions of the purse. The earlier running was spectacular, most of the contestants being closely grouped until after rounding into the stretch, where John Furlong drew out to win handliy.

Presiding Judge W. F. Schulte took a purse when King Olympian finished in advance of a mediocre band of starters in the sixth race. He was the shortest priced winner of the afternoon.

One of the chief disappointments of the day was provided by Parkview, which failed to do better than land third in the fifth race, Sylvestris and Belle Clem leading her to the finish.

The two year-old race which opened the card went to Yennassee over Foliane, with her staunchly supported Kinder Loui in third place. Three Links, running in vastly improved form, led a poor lot to the fini liberally.

The Palmetto Park meeting is being operated at a profit to its promoters, according to report.

Plans are being made by many of the horsemen here for the summer campaign. The bulk of the owners will ship their strings to Kentucky and the shipment will include the most pretentious stables

CHARLES KOHLER BUYS MORE HORSES.

New York, March 19.—Charles Kohler has purchased from Joseph H. Warren, of Delaplaine, Va., the thoroughbred stallion Charles Edward, by Golden Garter-Flora Mc. together with twenty yearlings and two-year-olds by Charles Edward. These horses will for the present be kept at Mr. Kohler's Ramapo Farm, in New Jersey, but later the two-year-olds will be placed in training and raced in Canada. The price paid for the lot was not made public, but it is said that it was at least $10,000.

Charles Edward was bred by James B. Haggin, and, with the colt Water Pearl, was trained by A. J. Joyner in 1906. During the June meeting at Sheepshead Bay that year E. R. Thomas bought a half increst in Water Pearl and Charles Edward for $50.000. In 1907 Charles Edward was bought by W. H. Dubois for $12,000 and won, among other important races, the Brighton Derby, running the mile and a half, with 126 pounds up, in 2:30\%, a great performance.

SPECULATING ON CHARLESTON'S FUTURE.

The following press dispatch from Charleston is going the rounds: "Now that the meeting at Palmetto Park of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association is about to turn into the homestretch, the question which is being discussed most is whether or not the association will race here next year. The anti-race track betting bill passed by the South Carolina Legislature goes into effect July 1 and after that date the owners of the track may be held legally responsible for any wagers made, which, if enforced, would, of course, put an end to the sport in this state. It is a matter of common report, however, that the association is going to attempt to hold a meeting next year in spite of this law. No definite statement concerning this has been obtained from the management."

CROSSOVER WINS HANDICAP AT JUAREZ,

Mare Recently Purchased by F. Otis Beats Kootena and Other Good Ones.

El Paso, Tex., March 19.—One of the biggest crowds of the Juarez meeting was in attendance today. Betting was brisk and all the races were full of snap and vim. The handicap at seven furlongs was contested by a good field and Crossover, ridden to excellent advantage, was returned the winner. Kootenay, one of the most consistent performers of the meeting, finished a good second after making all the pace. Meadow, the favorite, received a bungling ride at the hands of jockey Groth. This grand mare had an abundance of speed, but Groth adopted waiting tactics, and when he made his move, he got into no less than three different jams and pockets in the last three-eighths of the journey. This cost her a race that she should have won easily.

and pockets in the last three-eighths of the pouriez, This cost her a race that she should have won easily.

Three well-backed favorites rewarded their followers. Millo began the day auspiciously for the public by winning unextended in the first race. Layminster took the second race without much trouble and Gus Hartridge, closing joint favorite with Hannis, won the sixth. Hannis ran far below his good form.

Two riders met with the displeasure of the starter and the stewards. Heine Radtke was suspended for the rest of the meeting by starter Cassidy for over anxiety while riding Rampant, and Frasch was similarly disciplined for a listless ride on Sona.

Florence Israel, owner of Dromi, claimed Wade McLemore's filly Free for $525.

Jockey C. Gross, who feads the boys here in winning mounts, leaves tonight for Oakland to inspect a new home that he is having erected there. He will ride at Coeur d'Alene.

EXPECTS TO WIN KENTUCKY DERBY.

T. C. McDewell Thinks Sonada Is the One His Colt. The Manager, Will Have to Beat.

Louisville, Ky., March 19.—Maj. Thomas C. McDowell thinks he is going to win the thirty-eighth Kentucky Derby. He won it in 1902, when he sent Allan-a-Dale to the post. This spring he is fairly confident that his colors will be carried to victory by The Manager, the chestnut son of Voter—Brace-Indian Major McDowell in the Coloral Colorador of the Colorador of t by The Manager, the chestnut son of Voter—Bracegirdle.

Major McDowell is not so sure about the present favorite, Worth, being the main contender for this,
the greatest race of the American turf at this time. He rather inclines to the opinion that Sonada is the dangerous factor. Sonada is a son of Star Shoot—Janowood, and is the property of Catesby Woodford. Last year Sonada started four times, won twice, was once second and once unplaced.

The Manager will receive his preparation for the berby at Douglas Park, At this course all the McDowell string will be trained. The McDowell racers are as follows:

The Manager, unquestionably, is a grand-looking colt. He has wintered well and he enters upon his Derby training in superb condition. The Manager is the winner of the Kentucky Breeders' Futurity and three other races. He has been defeated but once.

George M. Odom is expected to arrive at Churchill Downs on March 28 with the string of horses that raced during the winter season at Juarez. Mexico. He will bring Folle Levy. Tourist, Fireman, Crowsfoot, Sumptuous, Debutante, Fiel, Traveler and Inquieta. Sumptuous and Inquieta are the most promising in the younger division of the Odom band. All of his horses are in good condition and he expects to have success this year on the Kentucky courses.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Winnie O'Connor, well-known American jockey who was recently hurt on an express train in France by being thrown against a glass window and cut, has sued the company for $40,000 damages.

A visitor from the capital said yesterday: "I think the King's Plate winner is in Ottawa. One of the fillies that J. G. Gorman bought from Mrs. Livingston is a remarkably good one."—Toronto Globe.

Horses owned by W. K. Vanderbilt won a first and a second yesterday at Maisons Laffitte in France, Marmara finished first in the Prix de Villechetive, of $1,000, distance 5 1-2 furlongs. In the Prix Andree, of $1,000, for three-year-olds, Faventia ran second. The distance was one mile.

WILSON STRING GREATEST IN AMERICA.

New York, March 19.—Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Racing Association, inspected his stable of horses at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon, and expressed much satisfaction with their uniform good health. The string is now the largest in America, and is headed by the veteran Olambala. Mr. Wilson has twenty-three head at Belmont Park under Tom Healey's care and six at Charleston. Mr. Wilson's choice of the two-year-olds is a brother of Penobscot, whom he declares will make turf history. The stable will again be campaigned in Virginia, Maryland and Canada, as was the case last year.
